STid Reinforces Sales Team

Stid, one of the trailblazers and market leaders in the design of secure & instinctive solutions, announces that Robert Jansson has been assigned as Director of sales for the Nordics and Eastern European territories of the Security division.

Robert has more than 20 years of experience in the expertise the company need to carry out the message of their highly secure physical access control products and solutions.

“I am very happy to have signed up for Stid and am eager to start meeting the market with an extremely strong portfolio”, says Robert.

“Stid’s security business has achieved massive success within the last years. The time is right for an expansion into these geographic areas that are very important for Stid’s strategic growth”, says Pierre-Antoine Larrera de Morel, VP of sales.

The first duty will be to attend the Ifsec show with the Stid team in London (18th to 20th of June, 2019) – Stand IF3336.
